

EDO GLASS

“Edo Glass” is the traditional glass craftwork made by the skills which have been handed over at Edo area from Edo Period (“Edo” is the old name of the present “Tokyo”). It was officially recognized as Japan Traditional Craft Products by Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry in Japan in November 2014.

JAPAN TRADITIONAL CRAFT PRODUCTS (CERTIFIED BY MINISTER OF ECONOMY, TRADE AND INDUSTRY)

The words of “Japan Traditional Craft Products” mean that products which have skills and techniques have been passed on for years until now and have been always adopted to changes of the times passing of an era.

For getting recognized as Japan Traditional Craft Products, the following five conditions are required based on “Law about promotion of officially designated traditional craft products industry”

Requirements

1. A daily commodity
2. Handmade
3. Made by a traditional skill or technique continued for the last 100 years or more
4. Made of a raw material which has been used traditionally
5. Created in a particular area.

MARK OF TRADITION

“Edo Glass” with “Mark of Tradition” (quality certification label) is the Traditional craft product officially designated by the Minister of Economy, Trade, and Industry, that has passed the standard of TOBU Glass Industry Co-operative Association of Japan.

Approval Number : 27-249

TRADITIONAL CRAFTS OF TOKYO (CERTIFIED BY GOVERNOR OF TOKYO METROPOLITAN GOVERNMENT)

"Traditional Crafts of Tokyo" have been cultivated over many years within the city's cultural climate and history, such arts and crafts are created using time-honored technologies and techniques that have been polished and refined through the ages.

Requirements

1. Handmade
2. Made by a traditional skill or technique
3. Made of a raw material which has been used traditionally
4. Made by a certain number of craftspeople in Tokyo

This seal is applied to those products that have passed the inspection process.